

SEWERMEN ARE HEALTHY

LONDON WORKER HAS NOT BEEN ILL FOR 14 YEARS

Declares Consumptives Would Find Line of Work Better Than Their Usual Treatment.

(By Universal Service.)
LONDON, Jan. 24.—(We are the healthiest people in all London.) This statement was made yesterday by a man coming out of a hole in Delgrave Square. His cheek was peachy with the bloom of health and his eye was clear and blue. He had just been touring for half a mile beneath the houses of the rich, and said that he felt all the better for it.

"I have been a sewerman for fourteen years," he continued, "and I have not known a day of sickness. Every time I go down I feel younger. It's just as good as a fortnight's holiday at Margate."

"Lots of ozone? Yes, I suppose it is. Anyway, it has made a man of me." Although he admitted that "sewering" meant a lot of hard work, he contended that it was not as unpleasant as most people imagined. Apparently there are not half so many rats in sewers as fiction leads us to believe, except for a few thousands clustered in the underworld beneath Kensington Gardens.

Consumptives go to Bournemouth and Devonshire and South of France, concluded this optimist of labor. "And what do they do? Eat more eggs than is good for them and die. Let them come and work in the sewers. They will put on pounds in weight and never want to see another egg as long as they live."

SOCIALISTS TO RAISE FUND

Want $20,000 to Defend Five Suspend- ed New York Assembly- men.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Leading Socialists, meeting today at the Rand School of Social Science, completed plans for a four-day drive to raise $20,000 for the defense of the five members of their party suspended by the Assembly and being tried at Albany on charges of disloyalty. The drive will last from January 27 to 31. Plans call for street corner collections, with mass-meetings in various parts of the city. The chief gathering will be in Madison Square Garden, January 28, when it was announced "three United States Senators" would speak. Their names were not made public.

Can't Stop Cars Without Notice.
TOLEDO, OHIO, Jan. 24.—The Toledo Railways and Light Company cannot again discontinue street car service here without giving at least fourteen days' notice in writing and delivering a copy of the notice to the clerk of the United States District Court, according to an order issued today by Judge Killits, of that tribunal.
